

Pamela Hardy
212 Pearl Street #5
Eugene, OR 97401

Interest: Dispersed Recreation

Occupation: Student, University of Oregon Law School

Ms. Hardy has been a professional leader of outdoor education and adventure most of her career. She recently completed a Master's thesis looking at the history of the Steens Mountain legislation and the progress of the Steens Mountain Advisory Council. She visited the Steens Mountain and communicated with SMAC members as part of her Master's thesis work. Ms. Hardy is currently serving as a mediator with the Lane County Circuit Court and has a Master's in Environmental Conflict Resolution. She is currently a student at the University of Oregon (U of O) studying environmental law.